Friday, as Usual, Economy Day.

A week's business in a store like ours causes the accumulation of numerous broken lots, remnants, odd pieces, lines with the principal selling sizes disposed These odd lots are made the principal selling feature of our Friday Economy Sales. Don't want to infer that these goods are undesirable or antiquated -far from it. Every department from the basement to the roof is called upon to furnish economic offerings, and the fact that we have hundreds of regular Friday patnons proves the people have come to recognize the advantages of this day's No No No No given last night by the Ladies' Missionary Society of the English Luther-an church, on Sixteenth street, in honor of the little tots of the congregation. The festivities have been known to members of the congregation as the annual "Cradle Roll," when the new faces of little ones of the past year are brought forth for entertainment. About one hundred and fifty children, with their parents, assembled in the base-ment of the church and partook of refreshments, which were served by the ladies. Last night's affair was one of the most successful ever given in the history of the congregation.

Yesterday's Fires.

The Vigilant Hose Company was called yesterday at noon, to extinguish a blaze caused by escaping gas in the cellar of W. Gundling, below Sixth street, on Market. Damage, nominal.

A gasoline stove explosion at the residence of Charles Nelswanger, of No. 111 Twelfth street, yesterday morn ing, caused an alarm to be sounded from box 31. The department responded promptly and prevented the flames from spreading. The damage was principally confined to the kitchen.

Epworth League Trip.

The West Virginia Epworth Leagu empleted arrangements for their district convention at Lake Chautau and will leave here Thursday morning, July 5, via the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railroad, Rev. C. E. Clark, chairman of the transportation com-mittee, has procured a low rate and ong limit on the tickets, particulars of which he will cheerfully furnish any body desiring to go on the trip.

ment of $162 while he was in the employ of W. F. C. Schnelle, the South Side Seventy-eight witnesses have been summened on the cases, owing to young Link having been sent out as a collector for Mr. Schnelle, he having received money for work performed aggregating $162. In most every instance receipted bills signed by Link were offered in evidence by the state.

The state is represented by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Frank W. Nesbitt and Cyrus P. Flick, while J. B. Handlan is representing the defendant. The following jury is hearing the case: Messrs. John Armbruster, George Brandfass, William Bashar, Edward Vaas, Henry Bruner, A. Stoetzer, R. E. Arkle, James Arthur, George S. Feeny, Richard Donahoe, John Brill and Sam Rhodes.

The case will probably be completed to-day.
